Judge Enyart

was appointed to the Tax Tribunal in 2008. Before coming to the Tribunal, Judge Enyart led her own appraisal company, worked with Ryan & Company, and previously served five years as a Michigan Tax Tribunal judge. She is past president of the Michigan Assessor's Association, and holds her CMAE IV designation with the State Assessor's Board. Ms. Enyart is a Certified General Appraiser in the State of Michigan. She has served on the Michigan Assessor's Association board and was legislative chair prior to and after the implementation of Michigan's tax limiting legislation "Proposal A". Ms. Enyart has been an instructor for both State and National appraisal and assessing organizations since 1985 and remains active in the Michigan Assessor's Association and the International Association of Assessing Officers.

Judge Gadola

was appointed to the Michigan Tax Tribunal in 2011, for a partial term, and reappointed in 2013. She earned a bachelor's degree, with honors, from the University of Michigan in 1986 and a law degree from Wayne State University Law School in 1990. Judge Gadola worked as a Hearing Referee for the Tax Tribunal from 1992-1994 and again from 2010-2011. She also worked as a grader for the Michigan Bar Exam for over a decade. She previously served as an Assistant Attorney General in both the Social Services and Revenue Divisions, representing the Family Independence Agency and the Michigan Department of Treasury. Previous to that she was an associate attorney at Adams, Mott and Staniszewski. She also served as a Public Member of the Michigan Board of Medicine and is a Member of the State Bar of Michigan, Taxation Section.
